

HUMAN TRAFFICKING DID YOU KNOW...

HUMAN TRAFFICKING IS DEFINED BY UNITED STATES LAW AS THE USE OF FORCE, FRAUD, OR COERCION TO COMPEL A PERSON INTO COMMERCIAL SEX ACTS OR LABOR AGAINST THEIR WILL.

THE VICTIMS

- Globally, 40 million people are survivors of human trafficking, with 25% being children.
- In the US, between 15,000 to 50,000 women and children are forced into sexual slavery annually, although precise figures are hard to determine.
- The US stands as one of the primary destinations for survivors of trafficking.
- Approximately over 50% of coerced trafficking victims are aged between 12 & 15.
- A significant 68% of trafficked youth were targeted while homeless.
- Common tactics involve manipulating victims through false promises of jobs in entertainment or modeling, using recruitment, grooming, and deceptive romantic relationships.

THE CRIME

- Human trafficking globally generates $150 billion annually.
- Unlike drugs that are sold once, individuals can be repeatedly sold for sexual acts.
- A commercial sex act involves exchanging something of value (money, food, drugs, shelter) for sexual activity.

POLARIS PROJECT

According to the Polaris Project, trafficking survivors were generally recruited by someone they knew - such as a family member or caregiver (33%), an intimate partner (28%), or an employer (22%).

THE CIRCUMSTANCES

- December 2022 data from HUD shows 582,462 homeless individuals in the US and territories, at risk of human trafficking.
- Traffickers target those facing economic struggles or lacking strong social support.
- The internet is a primary recruitment avenue for both labor and sex trafficking.
- Traffickers exploit social media for recruitment, to expand operations, and to manipulate victims by limiting their online access or spreading falsehoods about them.

REMINDER: JANUARY IS HUMAN TRAFFICKING MONTH

Survivors are using social media to seek help, create supportive networks, build communities, and become leaders in survivor advocacy.
